

Cape

How is the Research Support Fund Calculated?

Grants are based on funding that institutions have received from the three federal granting agencies in the three years preceding the grant cycle.

This formula provides higher rates of funding for the institutions that receive the least amount of money from the federal research granting agency

How Did CBU use the Institutional Allocation?

Total CBU Allocation of Research Support Fund in 2017-2018: $346,724

Expenditures incurred in 2017-2018:

14% Research Facilities

$47,752 towards support for research area space

13% Research Resources

$45,809 to library operating costs & administration

64% Management & Administration

$223,839 contributed towards:

Institutional support for completing grant applications